The GDNA Community Connect Social Event (in partnership with Covenant Presbyterian Church – CPC & the City of Roanoke) began at 5:30 p.m. The event was located inside CPC because of rain. Greater Deyerle Neighborhood residents & guests along with a number of organizations from Roanoke City, Roanoke County, CPC, & others celebrated Neighborhood Month and GDNA's 1st anniversary (after being dormant for 2 years). The following officers were in attendance: Adam Mastrangelo, president; Dave Harrison, vice president; Janet Kubik, secretary; Teresa Mastrangelo, communications; and Lee Cutright, treasurer. There were over 120 people in attendance including the following Participating Organizations:

A fun game of bingo was played to get attendees to visit each of the organizations that were lending their time to the event. Attendees picked up a card at the GDNA booth and got stamps for visiting with each organization. Completed cards were entered into a drawing for a handful of prizes! Thirty three (33) attendees signed up to bring meats, sides, & desserts. We had quite the spread in the Fellowship Hall!
